Dr. John E. Johnson, president of Santa Ana College, today announced administrative staff changes which will bring Vice Principal Thomas Trawick of Santa Ana High School to the college as Dean of Students and appoint SAC Counselor William Corser to a new position of Associate Dean of Students.

Trawick will replace Dr. Lester Beals, who resigned to become Professor of Education at Orange County State College.

Trawick joined the Santa Ana High School faculty as a chemistry instructor in 1946, added part time counseling in 1949, and has been vice principal since 1952. He earned his bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Southern California, graduating cum laude, and took graduate work at USC and Claremont.

Trawick has lived in Santa Ana since 1920, attended Santa Ana Schools and while attending Santa Ana College in 1936-38, was active in science, music and wrestling. He taught in Los Angeles and Brea-Olinda high school before coming to Santa Ana. He was a chemist for the Chiksan Tool Co. in Brea and the United States Rubber Co. He lives with his wife and daughter, Denise, at 2421 Valencia St.

Corser received his degrees at Los Angeles Pacific College, Pacific Union College, his B. A. at UCLA in psychology and science, and master's degree at the University of Southern California. He has taken graduate work at USC and Long Beach State College.

He taught child clinical psychology at UCLA for two years, was an instructor in the pre-flight school at the Santa Ana Army Air Corser has been a lecturer at Long Beach State College and El Toro Marine Base, operated his own printing shop, ice business and pottery manufacturing plant. He has served as a Toastmaster Club president, board member of the Orange County Mental Hygiene Association, and produced three documentary motion pictures.

Dr. Beals, Dean of Students at Santa Ana College, has resigned to accept a new position as Professor of Education at Orange County State College, which opens this fall in Fullerton.

Dr. William Langsdorf, OCSC President, announced that Dr. Beals will assist in the development of testing and counseling services and the training program for secondary teachers in addition to teaching classes in the department of education.

Informality Marks A.S. Board

Students who are required to attend A.S. Executive Board meetings by orientation teachers are learning absolutely nothing about the way a proper meeting should be run.

At a recent meeting of the Exec Board one of its members brought forth the fact that it might be a good idea if a parliamentarian were to hold a non-voting position on the board. We support this idea wholeheartedly.

Said one disgusted board member "We should be setting an example for these students who are required to attend our meetings to see how government works; now they are learning nothing."

With all the unnecessary, unrelated talking that goes on during a meeting it's no wonder that many students leave the meetings very much unimpressed with procedures.

What good does it do everybody concerned that board members be required to take a parliamentary procedure class if very little of that procedure is used?

With 18 members on next year's Exec Board it is essential that order be retained and that strict parliamentary procedure is followed. Appoint a parliamentarian!

CIRCLE K

At present, members of Circle K are working on a project for the betterment of the college campus by setting up all over campus, directional signs.

The signs will be wooden, set on steel poles. Circle K obtained one long pole and are cutting it to size with steel cross-bars for the signs to be set on. They are doing all the painting and finishing themselves.

W.A.A.

Tuesday evening the Associated Women Students and Women's Athletic Association held their annual banquet at the Royal Hawaiian in Anaheim.

The old and new A.W.S. boards were announced by present president Sharon LaBonte. Members of the A.W.S. boards presented Miss Agness Todd Miller, adviser, with a night case.

Judy Dombrowski, present W.A.A. president announced the present officers and the new officers for the fall semester. They are Karen Bessey, president; Alice Zandstra, vice-president; and Diane Narasaki, secretary - treasurer.

Members of W.A.A. presented their adviser, Miss Isabelle Rellstab, with a pair of red bermuda shorts.

In the field of participation, Santa Ana lost out in a chance to play the women's softball team at Orange Coast after O.C.C. cancelled the game on the last day.

Santa Ana finished their season with two losses and three wins for the season. At the El Camino sports day today, SAC is scheduled to play again one of the teams they met earlier.

For the season, Karen Bessey was the softball manager and Diane Narasaki was the softball captain.

COLLEGE PLAYERS

Last weekend College Players put on their best performance of the year when they presented the 1920 version of "The Boyfriend."

On opening night, there was almost a full house as close to 400 persons attended. The same thing occurred Friday night. By Saturday night the place was packed.

One instructor, Dr. Willis McNelly, enjoyed the show so much on Friday night that he returned Saturday night with his children so they could enjoy the show.

DON LIONS

Rec night tonight is being sponsored by the Don Lions offering the usual sports, dancing, swimming, and cokes. Dick Unwin, president, wants everyone to be sure to attend because this is going to be "the best yet."

New officers of Don Lions for next semester will be Harlan Lawson, president; Cliff Hutter, vice-president; and Tom Barnes, secretary-treasurer.

MUSIC CLUB

Laguna Beach was the site of festivities for the Music Club recently when they held a beach party as their last activity of the year.

Eighteen Music Club members attended the weenie roast and campfire sing.

Next year the plan is to enlarge and continue the club's activities. President Bob Campbell says there is no prerequisite for membership except an interest in music and fun.

KNIGHTS

At the Tuesday night meeting of the Knights new members were voted into the club.

Cliff Hutter, Don Andersen, Jose Cuervo, Don Bissonnette, and Dave Kaech were elected new members for the next semester.

NEWMAN CLUB

Phil Buckley was elected president of the Newman Club for summer activities.

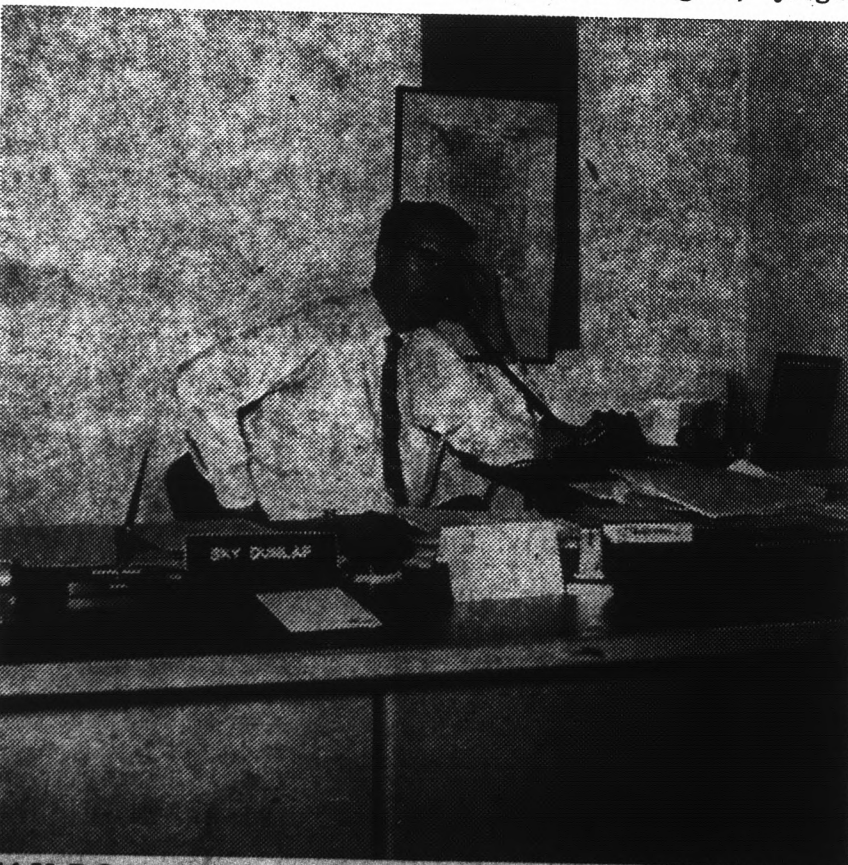

The Club will have a communion breakfast with the Orange Coast Newman Club Sunday morning.

LUTHERAN STUDENTS

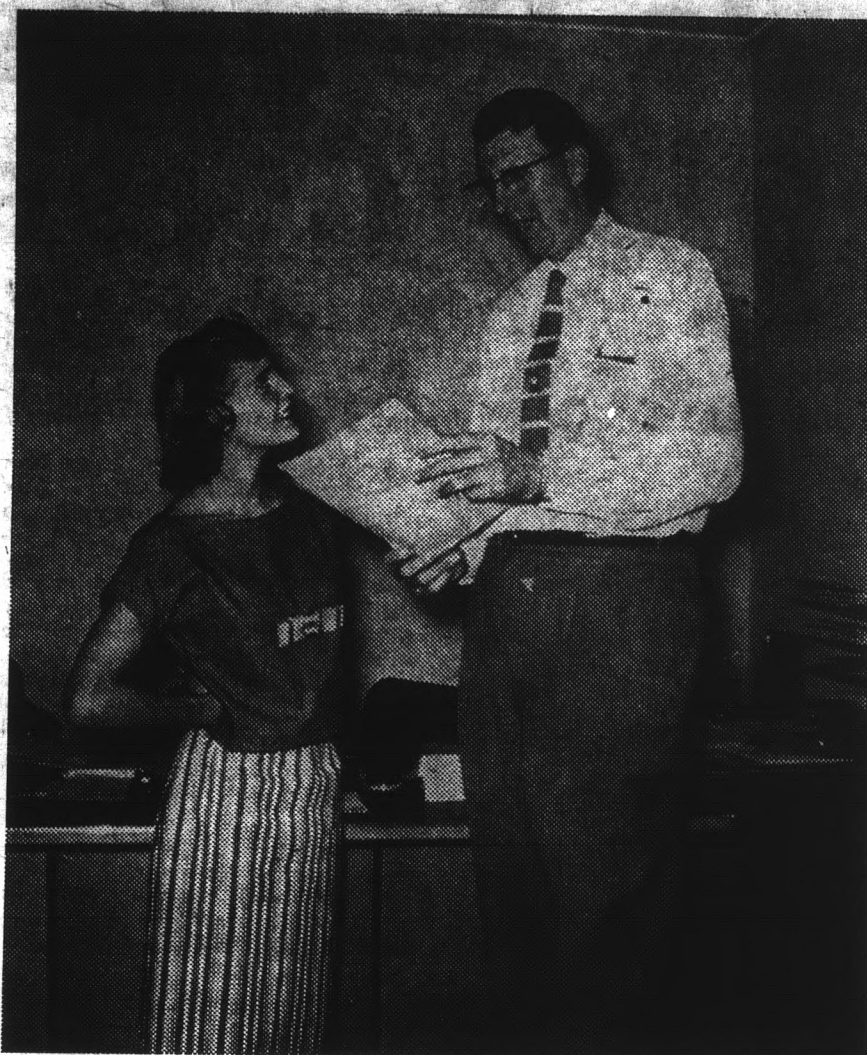

Wednesday evening members of the Lutheran Students Association held their farewell meeting for the year as a climax to their yearly events.

A bar-b-que was held at the home of Dr. Warren Beck for all LSA members in Dr. Beck's backyard.

Also at the meeting new officers for the following semester were elected. However, results were not out in time for publication.

CAN DO — Many people are forever calling Sky Dunlap to do this or that activity to which he always answers "Can do." Sky on the phone is a common scene to all who know him. — Photo by Norton

YES SIR — Getting last minute instruction from boss Sky Dunlap, Judy Norton is dwarfed next to him. "Sky" aptly fits this man as a name. — Photo by Matthews

Sky Dunlap Keeps Daily Agenda Full

Probably the busiest and tallest man on campus, Sky Dunlap finds himself in many positions at SAC. He is Assistant to the President with fingers in such pots as the SAC News Bureau, Athletic News Service, Speakers Bureau, printing and journalism, and alumni contacts through the alumni newsletter.

Besides these, Sky plays a very important part in Public Schools Week, Business and Industry Days, Education-In-Business Day, the Orange County Science Fair, Fine Arts Week, and the Orange County Fair. He is also indispensable in relations with other schools, students, faculty and the city administration.

With all these positions and so many things happening at once, it is no wonder that Sky is the hardest person on campus to find, even though his 6'8" stature can be spotted in any crowd.

He might be the proverbial "local boy makes good," judging from the record he left behind him at Santa Ana High School (grad. 1929), Santa Ana College (grad. 1931) and the University of Southern California, (grad. 1933).

In publications, Sky edited the SAHS Generator, the SAC El Don, and was News Editor of the USC Daily Trojan. From USC he went right into the field of newspapering with two years at the Santa Ana Register. While there, he was a police and city hall reporter.

After this, Sky spent 11 years with the United Press in many varied positions. He started out as a state house reporter, and was sent to Salt Lake, Sacramento, Salem and Olympia. Later he was a Hollywood columnist, West Coast Political Editor covering national party conventions, Sacramento Bureau Manager under Governors Merriam, Olsen and Warren, and was Pacific Northwest Division Manager when he decided to start his own newspaper here in his home town.

Sky spent three and a half years with the Santa Ana Globe, his own newspaper, then on to the L. A. Times where he was telegraph and news editor for four years immediately prior to his appointment here in 1953.

Since here his activities have been innumerable, and he worked himself into the heart of Santa Ana College.

Flag at Half Mast Signifies U.S. Loss

It's a weird sensation to come to the college early in the morning and glance up to see our flag flying at half mast.

There's a great story behind this event as we at the college pay tribute to the late John Foster Dulles. Although the college is not, in the sense, a federal building, Dr. John Johnson, requested that the flag be flown at half mast for his tribute to the great man.

Only once before in the history of the college was the flag flown in this manner. That was at the time of death of Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

The college flag symbolizes the feeling of the whole country. When it is realized that every flag all over the United States is flying low for Dulles, it brings the nation closer together in knowing that everyone in the country is stricken by this loss.

The flag was raised to its natural height Thursday morning after Dulles' funeral. The flags all over the nation were lowered at the request of President Eisenhower.

We Get Letters...

Dear Editor:

It has come to my attention that some members of the Executive Board want to fill the offices of the new Supreme Court with members of the Executive Board only.

This I feel completely stamps out any possibility for the student government setup to function properly. Also this limits our student government to just a few when everyone who can should be included.

If all the Supreme Court officers were board members and a student came up before the court to complain of a ruling passed by the Executive Board, how could those people who passed the ruling judge objectively on what they themselves passed?

This not only hinders the action of a fair Supreme Court but leaves the board members wide open for criticism. Many of the board members feel that the Supreme Court will have too much power in being able to overrule the Executive Board decisions, making the court nothing more than a sound board for the Executive Board's cronic critics.

I feel that this Court is not a necessity in that very few people would ever bother to bring a complaint before it.

Cliff Hutter

Editor's Note: According to the constitution the A. S. president can appoint all board members to the Supreme Court. However, our new president Mott is not planning on this. It is a weak spot in the new constitution, nevertheless.

Walt Smith to Speak at Banquet; Spring Sports, Wrestlers Hailed

Walter Smith, Dean of Students at Glendale City College, former track star at Santa Ana College and the University of Southern California, will be the speaker for the annual Spring Sports Banquet for the Dons on Monday, June 1 in the Student Union at 6:30.

The banquet will honor members of the track, golf, baseball, tennis and wrestling teams, coached by John Ward, Arlin Pirtle, Cliff Rothrock, Bob Boyd and George Farrier, respectively.

Smith was an honor student at SAC in 1940-41, set a college mark of 49.5 in the quarter-mile and was a low hurdle champion. He continued at USC, setting a national junior AAU record of 23.1 in the 200 meter hurdles and was national champion in the 400 meter hurdles that year and again in 1947, when he returned from military service to captain the Trojan track team. He received a track team trip through Europe after the 1947 season.

Letters will be presented by the respective coaches to the members of the spring sports and wrestling squads with most valuable player awards highlighting the presentation.

The Don golf and track teams each finished second in conference meets to have the most successful seasons of the sports being feted. The baseball and tennis clubs fell to the cellar in the conference while the wrestling team copped fourth.

Like the basketball team the golf team made an outstanding showing in the state meet, copping a solid third place after being almost unregarded before the meet got underway.

Four national track records came to Santa Ana college during the 1959 season with three of them still here. Charley Clark notched two of the marks in individual events as he ran the mile in 4:11.6 and the two-mile in 9:05.1.

The distance medley relay team of Larry Spaulding, Max Cheney,

Don Guyer and Clark copped the distance medley mark early in the year only to have it topped by Bakersfield in Fresno later. The Dons ran second in the race that Bakersfield won and bettered their own previous best time.

A four-man four-mile team set a new national standard three weeks ago in Walnut at a special meet in a time just under 18 minutes.

Joe Keith spotlighted the 1958-59 wrestling campaign by capturing both conference and state honors while Ronnie May copped conference honors while performing for the baseball club.

Spotlight on Sports

By Don Andersen

Remember early this spring we commented in this column about the possible formation of an award to the school making the best all-around performance in athletics to be known as the All-Sports trophy?

Well, Don Cantrell, sports editor of the Costa Mesa Globe-Herald, totaled up points that would have been made by each of the schools on the basis of 8-7-6-5-4 and so on for 1st, 2nd, 3rd, places and on down.

Only the six sports that all the schools of the conference participate in were included and Orange Coast copped the mythical title with 36 points. Mt. San Antonio was second with 29 and Santa Ana third with 25 1/2.

Coast won titles in tennis and golf, Mt. SAC in track and baseball and Santa Ana in basketball. Riverside copped the football crown.

Frank Errota, El Don sports editor during 1948-49, has published a booklet entitled "High School Track and Field Annual." Errota is presently with the sports staff of the San Jose Mercury-Herald.

After graduating from SAC Errota transferred to San Jose State where he continued his major in journalism. While editing the sports page of the Don paper, Errota rated a perfect score from the University of Minnesota's journalism department and the judge stated that his page, at that time, was the best junior college sports page in the United States.

Errota visited the SAC campus this week where he inspected the new journalism building.

Errota reported that two former Santa Ana College athletes are making names for themselves at San Jose.

Dave Hurlburt, former All-Conference football player, was in the starting backfield and was a key man in the Spartans' 21-20 upset of highly favored Arizona State.

Jack Bose, a trackster, has cleared 6'3" in the high jump and placed third in a recent meet against Stanford.

That's the 30 mark for 1959.

Honors Revealed to WAA at Banquet

At the A.W.S. and W.A.A. banquet held at the Royal Hawaiian in Anaheim, W.A.A. adviser Miss Isabelle Rellstab announced the most outstanding and the most improved players for each women's sport.

In basketball Gwen Thompson was the most outstanding while Diane Narasaki was named most improved. Judy Dombrowski received most outstanding honors in tennis with Karen Bessey as most improved.

In the baseball field Karen Bessey turned up as most outstanding and was also awarded the honor of being most improved in that sport. Lucille Chizarro was announced as most outstanding in Volleyball and Barbara Shields received the most improved honors.

Clark Accepts Compton Invite

Charley Clark, the greatest distance runner in SAC history, has accepted an invitation to run in the 3000 meter steeplechase in the Compton Invitational track meet next weekend.

3000 meters is just under two miles. Clark holds the national JC two-mile record having covered the distance in 9:05.1.

He turned down a bid to compete against SC's Max Truax in the 5000 meter, feeling he hasn't yet returned to his top form following illness and injury.

RONNIE MAY
(All-Conference Pick)

Ronnie May Picked For All-EC Honors

Santa Ana College first baseman Ronnie May has been named to the All-Eastern Conference baseball team.

May who hit .396 for the year was named to a second team berth. He was one of the few Dons who managed to stay healthy throughout the just completed campaign.

Clark, Cheney, Stoner Qualify For State Track Meet Tomorrow

Charley Clark, Max Cheney, and Doug Stoner have qualified to compete in the California State JC Track meet tomorrow night in Modesto.

The three qualified for the state meet by placing in the top four finishers in the Southern California Sectional Meet held last Saturday in Glendale.

Clark finished first in the two-mile and second in the mile, Cheney fourth in the mile, and Stoner first in the discus to assure entry in the State meet.

Charley suffered his first defeat of the year in the mile when Neville Shaw of Bakersfield copped the race by a narrow margin. Shaw's time was 4:18.9, Clark's 4:19.1. Clark came back to cop the two-mile by 25 yards in 9:27.5.

Stoner sailed the discus 152 feet one inch to cop that event by better than a foot and Cheney ran his fastest mile, 4:20.5 to qualify for tomorrow's State.

Clark by finishing in the top four in both the mile and two-mile run has qualified to run in both events in tomorrow's State meet. He'll again compete with Bakersfield's Shaw in both races.

Bakersfield's well balanced club totaled the most points in the qualifying meet (67 1/7) while Santa Ana was the highest Eastern Conference finisher. (7th with 35 1/4 points.)

The Dons wound up the 1959 track campaign with second place in dual meet standing and finished second in the All-Conference Meet. Mt. San Antonio won both titles.
